1 may become aware through the exercise of due diligence. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16.

2 (1) The Defendant's Statements. The defendant requests all oral, written, or recorded
3 statements made by her, including any statements contained in the handwritten notes of any
4 government agent, and any response she made to any Miranda warnings that government agents may 5 have read to her. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A); Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).

6 (2) Arrest Reports, Notes, Dispatch Tapes. The defendant requests all arrest reports, notes,
7 dispatch tapes, and any other materials that relate to the circumstances surrounding her arrest and
8 interrogation. This request includes, but is not limited to, rough notes, records, reports, transcripts,
9 or other documents which contain statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material.
10 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A); Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B); Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).
11 The government must disclose arrest reports, investigator's notes, memoranda from arresting
12 officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. Fed.
13 R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).

14 (3) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of her prior record.
15 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D).

16 (4) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests disclosure of evidence seized as a result of 17 any search, whether warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

18 (5) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect, copy, or test all
19 documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, alleged controlled
20 substances, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the 21 defense, intended for use in the government's case, or were obtained from or belong to the defendant.
22 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

23 (6) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant requests preservation of all 24 physical evidence, including dispatch tapes, that the government or its agents may destroy, lose, or 25 otherwise fail to preserve, and which relates to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this 26 case. This request includes, but is not limited to, the results of any fingerprint analyses, the 27

1 defendant's personal effects, and any other evidence seized from the defendant, or any third party.
2 This request also encompasses a request to preserve for questioning all the people from the car in
3 which defendant was driving. The defendant requests that the Court order at the time of the motions
4 hearing that the government preserve all evidence to avoid a future status conference regarding that 5 evidence.

6 (7) Reports Of Examinations And Tests. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect
7 and copy any reports of physical or mental examinations, and any scientific tests, which are material
8 to the defense, or intended for use in the government's case. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F).

9 (8) Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written 10 summary of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness
11 during its case. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). Mr. Lopez requests that the Court order disclosure
12 of this discovery at least four weeks prior to trial in order to investigate it, to prepare in limine
13 motions in a timely manner, and to prepare adequately for trial.

14 (9) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, reports, and tangible 15 evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt, which affects the credibility of the 16 government's case, or which may result in a lower sentence under the United States Sentencing
17 Guidelines and/or 18 U.S.C. § 3552. Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). Under Brady, 18 impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence favorable to the 19 accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

20 (10) Giglio Information. The defendant requests all statements and/or promises, express or 21 implied, made to any government witness in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other
22 information which could arguably impeach any government witness. Giglio v. United States, 405
23 U.S. 150 (1972).

24 (11) Henthorn Material. The defendant requests that the government examine the personnel
25 files of all government agents who may testify in this action for Brady material. United States v.
26 Herring, 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996).

1 (12) Informants And Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, address, and 2 location of any informants or cooperating witnesses the government used or will use in this case, and
3 in particular, the name, address, and location of any informant who was a percipient witness in this
4 case, or who otherwise participated in the crime charged against Mr. Lopez. Roviaro v. United 5 States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 (1957). The government must disclose any information derived from 6 informants which exculpates, or tends to exculpate, the defendant. Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83
7 (1963). The government must also disclose any information indicating bias on the part of any 8 informant or cooperating witness. Id.

9 (13) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests, at least four weeks in advance of trial,
10 all material, including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to 18 U.S.C.
11 § 3500. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at the request of defendant to 12 investigate the Jencks material. Disclosure of this discovery at least four weeks prior to trial will 13 also enable Mr. Lopez to prepare in limine motions in a timely manner and to prepare adequately for 14 trial.

15 (14) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The defendant requests prior notice of any “other acts”
16 that the government intends to introduce in its case-in-chief, through impeachment, or in its rebuttal
17 case. Fed. R. Evid. 404(b); Fed. R. Evid. 609; United States v. Vega, 188 F.3d 1150 (9th Cir. 1999).
18 Mr. Lopez requests that the Court order disclosure of this discovery at least four weeks prior to trial
19 in order to investigate the “acts,” to prepare in limine motions, and to adequately prepare for trial.

20 (15) Residual Request. Mr. Lopez intends by this discovery motion to invoke her rights to 21 discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the 22 Constitution and laws of the United States. Mr. Lopez requests that the government provide her with 23 the above requested material sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid unnecessary delay prior to cross-
24 examination.
